Written by popular author Amy Welborn, the booklet encourages parents and family to grow together during the important season of Lent. This classic set of devotions by Creative Communications founder Larry Neeb (1939-2019) is designed to help us discover a deeper and richer relationship with God. The truth, of course, is that we can never find God unless he first finds us. God’s forgiving and renewing power is what animates us in our Christian walk of active love and service, these pages reveal, as we draw near to Christ’s cross.

Family Devotional The season of Lent provides the perfect time for families to reflect from where true fulfillment and peace comes. Throughout the season, as throughout our lives, it is Christ who works to fill the empty vessels of our hearts and we discover "we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us" (2 Corinthians 4:7). That power, that forgiving love, is ours to share.

There's something for the whole family in this collection of Lent products that both teaches and delights.

Follow Christ's journey to the cross that we now recognize as Holy Week. Children learn the "triumphant" entry on a donkey into Jerusalem becomes Jesus' final days as man, where he faces ultimate betrayal, rejection and sacrifice to bring ultimate victory for us all. Walk together with your classes or families on the path to Calvary.

How to use these pieces together:

Introduce & Teach the Message

Use the Children's Sermons as a springboard to teach 6 messages through Lent and Easter Day! The message is told through object lessons for a children's church or thematic unit in Sunday school or mid-week ministry.

Reinforce the Message

Colorful bulletins illustrate the lessons and engage learning with activities. Children can complete the activities as a group, at home with parents or independently in the pew.

Build and reinforce learning with this coordinating mobile. Each day children look forward to adding an "ornament" to their mobile that serves as a daily devotion and creates an engaging, interactive display.

Send the Message Home

Get the whole family involved with a daily message from the Children's evotional and give What Do I See at Calvary? to parents to pray through together!

JOHN 3:16 DEVOTIONAL BOOKLET

For God So Loved the World

Devotions drawn from John 3:16

By Carol Geisler

The few words of John 3:16 are sometimes called "the Gospel in a nutshell." These devotions explore the verse that so well sums up the unexpected, self-sacrificing love of God for the world he created. The sign of the cross, an instrument of violence and death, has become for us a sign of forgiveness and life. God sent his Son as the Savior of the world, so that all who believe in him will have eternal life. That is how God so loved the world.

PLACES of the PASSION

A Series of Services for Lent and Easter

The places where the Passion of our Lord took place have special meaning to Christians the world over. They remind us that Jesus walked this earth and stood in locations we can still find today to carry out his mission of salvation. This was no sightseeing trip for our Savior. There was a serious reason he came to be at certain places and at particular times to suffer and die and rise again. He was fulfilling the will of his Father who desired that we be forgiven and given a place in heaven with him forever.

Digital Worship Kits

RENEWED CLASSICS!

Now available, bestselling past worship kits. Pulled from the Creative archive, these Lenten worship services include timeless messages of hope and salvation.

Perfect for the hybrid church, both in-person or online services, these kits include a complete order of service, full scripts of sermons (as monologues or dialogues), children's sermons, hymn suggestions and more!

Celebrate Lent in a familiar way with these throwback titles!

This Lent worship series asks, "What is your role in the suffering and death of Christ?" Week by week, this question is addressed— through homilies and monologs by biblical characters who actually did have a hand in the crucifixion of Christ. Characters include Adam (or Eve), Nicodemus, Judas, Barabbas, Pilate, the father of the Thief on the Right, Peter, the Centurion, and Mary Magdalene. Homilies, scripts for the monologs, prayers, Scripture readings, music and children's sermons are included.

Here is a series of services that takes the time to consider seriously our Lord's humanity, the human body in which he wrought our salvation. Week by week, responsive calls to worship, Scripture readings, hymn stanzas, and prayers invite congregation members to focus their attention on: • the feet of Christ • the eyes of Christ • the hands of Christ • the mouth of Christ • the ears of Christ • the heart of Christ. Homilies on these topics, rich in biblical references, are scripted in such a way that they may be offered by two persons as dialog sermons— or by a single preacher..

Digital download
Code BD1DD • $39.99

By means of hymns and dramatic homilies, the congregation is led on a biblically chronological journey to "mountaintop experiences" which all focus on the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. At Mount Moriah Abraham's faith is tested and strengthened. At Mount Sinai Moses and the Israelites receive the word of God. At Mount Carmel Elijah calls for faith and faithfulness. Jesus joins the faithful in worship at Mount Zion. On Mount Olivet Jesus assures us that we too are the children of God. At Mount Calvary we view "God's own sacrifice complete."

Services begin with the "Psalms of Ascent." Dramatic homilies involve a narrator and as many as four other readers. The congregation participates in the homilies with the singing of successive stanzas of "Unto the Hills."

Suppose you had signed up with a travel agent for a guided tour of Jerusalem during the week of Passover in the year A.D. 30 ... what might you have seen and heard? Each week in this Lenten series, worshippers will be led by a typical tour guide on an imaginary visit to the Holy City. The tour guide will offer historical, cultural and religious commentary on the sights of the city, just as a person might have done 2000 years ago the week Jesus was arrested, tried and crucified. The "stops" each week are The Temple, Passover, The Mount of Olives, The Palace of the High Priest,

The Fortress of Antonio, and Skull Hill. Scripts for the dramas include multiple readers, homilies, hymns, prayers and Scripture readings.

Digital Download • Code JP3DD • $39.99

This six-part Lenten worship series asks, "Did various people who were involved in our Lord's Passion ever have an opportunity to talk with one another about it?" People such as Malchus and Mark, Barabbas and Caiaphas, Pilate and his wife, Simon of Cyrene and the centurion, Mary and John, and the two thieves. If you could have listened to their conversations, what might you have Overheard? Designed to be read from the balcony or back of the church, each audio drama in the Overheard worship series begins with a sermonic introduction to set the scene; a sermonic conclusion then draws the appropriate conclusions. Hymns, prayers, scripture verses are included.

Sermon on the Mount

Holy Week Series

By Rev. Dean Nadasdy

Take worshipers through some of the most familiar teachings of Jesus from his Sermon on the Mount, Matthew 5-7. Review the events of Christ's life, death and resurrection during Holy Week and reveal how the cross itself is the ultimate sermon on the mount for our journey of faith in this sacred season.

The kit contains sample bulletins with complete orders of service, sermon, children's message, prayers and music for the accompanist for Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter.

At the Crossroads

Holy Week Series

By Rev. Ted Schroeder

Many of those involved in the story of the Passion of Christ came to a crossroads and had to decide which way to go. Some chose well, some did not. These experiences help us know what to do and how to choose when faced with similar crossroads. Each service in this Holy Week series ends by revealing how Christ and his cross lead us to decide the path of God's will for us.

Thy Will Be Done

Holy Week Series

By Rev. Justin Rossow

"Not as I will, but as you will," Jesus prayed to his Father the night before he went to the cross for our salvation. And that is our prayer as well as we seek to do God's will in our lives, as we observe Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter.

Each service focuses on a different aspect of God's will at work among us. Biblical characters are used as insightful reference points to guide us in following our Lord more nearly day by day. Monolog sermons.

By His Wounds We Are Healed

The innocent Son of God had no sins of his own for which he deserved to die, yet his enemies falsely accused him of violating every commandment of God. Each week, we see that it was our sin, our disobedience that Jesus bore in his body on the cross. The Lord laid on him "the iniquity of us all." Jesus suffered the penalty of death in our place, and "by his wounds we are healed." The Leader's Guide includes answers, study notes and session directions.
