Lifted Up in Love

Lenten Devotions
Inspiration from
Henri J. M. Nouwen

Henri J.M. Nouwen, one of the most beloved spiritual thinkers of the 20th century, wrote from the heart about the great love of Christ lifted up for us on the cross. Excerpts from Nouwen's inspiring insights are paired with original reflections and prayers in this booklet for each day of Lent, as we come to experience more fully the everlasting compassion of God shown to us in our Savior.

Guided to the Cross

Devotions for Lent
by Ed Arle

The Lenten devotions in this booklet guide us closer to the cross of Christ. Throughout this holy time, we are drawn to Calvary to live in forgiveness, hope, love, peace, trust and perseverance. These daily devotions reveal how Christ and his cross serve as examples for us of how to live our lives for and through our crucified Lord and Savior.

a In Jesus' Name
Praying with the Names of Jesus
by Pat Gohn and Mark Zimmermann

Pray during Lent "in Jesus' name" with this book of prayers that focuses on many different titles for Jesus. Short descriptions of the individual names are included with each prayer. Perfect to develop the Lenten practice of prayer (and learn something in the process).

48 pages • 3 7/8" x 5 1/2" • Code WD5

b Cross My Heart
Lenten Devotions for Children
by David Mead

"For God so loved..." the Bible tells us. For God so loved, God sent us Jesus, a living, loving, dying, rising example of this great love for us. Each daily prayerful devotion in this booklet for children and their families highlights God's great love that's been given to us in the person of Jesus and shown to us through Jesus' sacrifice on the cross. It is a love that we, as Jesus' followers, are called to share to all the world through our words and actions during the season of Lent and throughout our lives.

Perfect for children ages 6 to 12 and their families.

c Sow, Now It's Lent!
Devotions from Eden to the Garden Tomb
for Teens & Young Adults

The daily Lenten devotions and activities in this booklet spring from the growth and garden imagery present throughout Scripture. Beginning in the Garden of Eden—where, through Adam and Eve, paradise was lost—the path winds through the promises of the Old Testament and blooms into life out of the many farming parables of Jesus. It leads us, at Easter, to the empty garden tomb...and the New Eden, where, through Christ, paradise is restored for all believers.

d A Season of Hope
Lenten Devotions for Seniors

We live in hope every season of our lives. The daily devotions in this large-print special edition for Lent highlight the message and theme of hope for older adult Christian readers. These reflections help seniors ponder Christ's journey to the cross and empty tomb for their salvation and encourage them to share with younger generations the hope they have within them through Jesus.

Coordinate your message

Start your Lent planning by selecting from one of our two newest Lent collections. The Traditional Collection is anchored in writings by Henri Nouwen. The Family Celebration Collection pairs devotions with family-friendly activities. Each offers a coordinated assortment of devotionals, keepsakes and handouts that extend the season, enrich the experience and focus our energies on the One who loves us most. All items are designed to be used and sold separately but when bundled together, offer additional savings and deeper focus.

Lenten Placemat

Make mealtimes in Lent a time for further prayer and reflection with this placemat that lifts up the name of Jesus, who died on the cross for us.

Cross My Heart

This coordinated collection of Lent products teaches and delights. God's love is all around us in the season of Lent. These Cross My Heart resources help children remember and share the compassion of Christ as they prepare for his death and resurrection.

How to use these pieces together:

Send the Message Home

Children's Devotional "For God so loved..." the Bible tells us. For God so loved, God sent us Jesus, a living, loving, dying, rising example of this great love for us. Each daily prayerful devotion in this booklet for children and their families highlights God's great love that's been given to us in the person of Jesus and shown to us through Jesus' sacrifice on the cross. It is a love that we, as Jesus' followers, are called to share to all the world through our words and actions during the season of Lent and throughout our lives.

SERVICES FOR LENT

GUIDED to the CROSS

Throughout the holy season of Lent, we are drawn to Calvary to live in forgiveness, hope, love, peace, trust and perseverance. Each week, the services in this series reveal how Christ and his cross serve as examples for us of how to live our lives for and through our crucified Lord and Savior.

Ash Wednesday • Guided to Forgiveness (Colossians 1:13-14)

When we confess our sins, we find forgiveness in the cross of Christ and are empowered to forgive others.

Week 1 • Guided to Hope (2 Corinthians 1:10) When we are uncertain about what the future holds, we discover in the cross the sure hope of heaven.

Week 2 • Guided to Love (1 Timothy 1:13-14) When we are separated from others and from God by our sin, the cross brings us together through its love.

Week 3 • Guided to Peace (Colossians 1:19-20) With wars waging within and without, the cross settles them all with peace to body, mind and soul.

Week 4 • Guided to Trust (1 Timothy 1:15) Plagued by doubt and competing voices, we turn to the cross to put our trust fully in the salvation won for us there.

Week 5 • Guided to Perseverance (Ephesians 6:18) When we are faced with hardship, we look to Christ on the cross who endured to the end so that we might carry on.

HOLY WEEK WORSHIP SERIES

Continue the series format and theme throughout Holy Week. Each service is available separately and includes all the worship kit features described on the previous page.

Palm Sunday

Guided to Humility (James 4:10)

Just as Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a humble donkey, we are carried by humility to the cross to receive exaltation.

Maunder Thursday

Guided to Service (Romans 7:6)

With water and basin and wine and bread, Jesus shows that he is a servant who gives his all for us, even death on the cross.

Good Friday

Guided to Sacrifice (Hebrews 10:12)

Jesus took our place on the cross, offering himself for us that we might offer ourselves as living sacrifices to him.

Easter Sunday

Guided to New Life (Romans 6:4)

The empty tomb reveals the power of the crucified Christ to break through the bonds of death to live again that we might live forever.

Also Available Individually

Ash Wednesday • Guided to Forgiveness (Colossians 1:13-14) When we confess our sins, we find forgiveness in the cross of Christ and are empowered to forgive others.

FOR TEENS

Sow, Now It's Lent!

Devotions from Eden to the Garden Tomb for Teens & Young Adults

The daily Lenten devotions and activities in this booklet spring from the growth and garden imagery present throughout Scripture. Beginning in the Garden of Eden—where, through Adam and Eve, paradise was lost—the path winds through the promises of the Old Testament and blooms into life out of the many farming parables of Jesus. It leads us, at Easter, to the empty garden tomb...and the New Eden, where, through Christ, paradise is restored for all believers.

A Season of Hope

Lenten Devotions for Seniors

We live in hope every season of our lives. The daily devotions in this large-print special edition for Lent highlight the message and theme of hope for older adult Christian readers. These reflections help seniors ponder Christ's journey to the cross and empty tomb for their salvation and encourage them to share with younger generations the hope they have within them through Jesus.

NEW! Words That Last Forever

A Worship Series for Lent and Holy Week
by Arden Mead

This classic series focuses on how Christ mapped out his way of suffering with seven famous last words—final phrases that served as tiny touchstones along his path to salvation for us. The sermons in the series can be delivered by three voices (for dramatic impact) or by one voice as a monologue sermon. The seven words cover six services for Lent and one for Good Friday, with added words for services for Maundy Thursday (For you) and Easter (Alleluia).

NEW! Thus It Is Written

A Worship Series for Lent
by Arden Mead

By means of first-person monologue sermons (which may be offered by three different speakers, each presenting for two weeks at a time, or by the same speaker each week) the six services in this series for Lent allow Mark, Luke and John to tell why they wrote about the Lord's Passion the way they did.

Jerusalem at Passover
A Lenten Tour
A Series Of Special Services
by Arden W. Mead

Each week in this Lenten series, worshippers will be led by a typical tour guide on an imaginary visit to the Holy City the week that Jesus died. The "stops" each week are The Temple, Passover, The Mount of Olives, The Palace of the High Priest, The Fortress of Antonio, and Skull Hill. Scripts for the dramas include multiple readers, homilies, hymns, prayers and Scripture readings.

Overheard
Conversations by the Cross
A Series Of Special Services For Lent

This six-part Lenten worship series asks, "Did various people who were involved in our Lord's Passion ever have an opportunity to talk with one another about it?" People such as Malchus and Mark, Barabbas and Caiaphas, Pilate and his wife, Simon of Cyrene and the centurion, Mary and John, and the two thieves. If you could have listened to their conversations, what might you have Overheard? Designed to be read from the balcony or back of the church.

The Hills of Lent

A Series of Services for Lent

The congregation is led on a biblically chronological journey to “mountaintop experiences” that all focus on the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Mount Moriah, Mount Sinai, Mount Carmel, Mount Zion, Mount Olivet and Mount Calvary are highlighted. Services begin with the “Psalms of Ascent.” Dramatic homilies involve a narrator and as many as four other readers.

By My Hand For My Sake

A Series of Special Services for Lent

Services in this series focus attention on: • the feet of Christ • the eyes of Christ • the hands of Christ • the mouth of Christ • the ears of Christ • the heart of Christ. Homilies on these topics, rich in biblical references, are scripted in such a way that they may be offered by two persons as dialogue sermons, or by a single preacher.

The Body of Christ

A Series of Special Services for Lent

This Lent worship series asks, “What is your role in the suffering and death of Christ?” Week by week, this question is addressed— through homilies and monologues by biblical characters who actually did have a hand in the crucifixion of Christ. Characters include Adam (or Eve), Nicodemus, Judas, Barabbas, Pilate, the father of the Thief on the Right, Peter, the Centurion, and Mary Magdalene. Homilies, scripts for the monologues, prayers, Scripture readings, music and children’s sermons are included.

In honor of the 250th anniversary of the writing of “Amazing Grace,” this worship series for Lent by theologian Michael Hoy ties the words of the beloved song to our lives today as Christ’s disciples. Those in the Bible who experienced the amazing grace of God help us each week to realize that though we once were lost in sin, we now have been found by Jesus, and though we once were blind to God’s mercy, we now can see his love at work in us through our Savior’s death and resurrection.

Who Is Jesus?
Reflections on the Identity of Christ
by Carol Geisler

Jesus asked his disciples for popular opinions concerning his identity and received a variety of answers. Still today, Jesus is a controversial figure of history. Was he merely a prophet, a miracle-working rabbi, a good teacher or a mere example to follow in life? World religions offer different opinions concerning the person of Jesus. But Jesus had much to say about his own identity. After hearing the opinions suggested by his followers, Jesus asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" That is a question that each of us must answer. Who is Jesus? This short booklet by Carol Geisler helps guide readers to the true biblical answer to the question of his identity.

The Seder: A Meal with Meaning

Celebrating the Passover with the Seder meal is a tradition with a 4,000-year history. And it is part of our history as Christians too! This colorful trifold provides a handy overview of the Seder and its obvious ties to Holy Communion. Our Lord was celebrating the Passover when he instituted the Lord's Supper, a meal, like the Seder, tied to our salvation story. Use the text and helpful hints on this handout to host your own Seder meal at church or at home.

FOR FORTY DAYS

He was in the wilderness forty days.

MARKET

The forty-day season of Lent represents the time Jesus spent in the wilderness, evading the temptations of Satan and preparing to begin his ministry. We use this time in a similar fashion—engaging in spiritual reflection in quiet places, awaiting the devil's ploys and getting our hearts ready to spread the news of Christ's suffering, death and resurrection for our salvation.

QUIET MOMENTS In our noisy, busy culture, we are often unable to simply sit in silence. But Lent calls us to be quiet in order to grow in Jesus and focus on the voice calling us which year to go in our lives of faith. Jesus sat aside forty days for quiet reflection in the wilderness, and he gives us the strength to do the same.

RESIST THE DEVIL The devil "prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour" (1 Peter 5:8). But we don't have to be afraid. We have the Word of God at our disposal to defend ourselves against the devil's lies, and we have the knowledge that Jesus never fell for any of the devil's temptations. Lent reminds us that Jesus has the power to not only resist but defeat the devil by dying on the cross as the sinless Son of God for our sake.

NEW!

EXPERIENCING HOLY WEEK

The experience of Holy Week is an "in some ways" way to look at our world's year-what Jesus Passover and death for us accomplished in his resurrection from the dead. It is a week that encourages us to see what the Church is a long time and to see how Jesus died for us. Let a picture of what Jesus did at the cross of Holy Week and into our existence from nearly 2000 years ago.

Waving Palms (on Palm Sunday, we hold palm branches in our hands and feel the breeze blow past our faces as we wave them. The same sensation was felt by followers of Christ when they welcomed Jesus into Jerusalem. The palms were symbols of honor and respect, as flags would be today. Those who saw Jesus riding into town on a donkey were happy to see him and honored him with praise as the ruler of their lives. We, too, honor Jesus on this day (and every day) as our humble King, who will soon be crowned with thorns.

Bread and Wine (on Thursday, we share with an opportunity to truly taste and see that the Lord is good. On this night, we eat the bread and drink the cup which are Christ's body and blood in this Holy blood, just as the disciples did on the night he was betrayed. This sacred eating and drinking makes us of our own and fills us with refreshment to carry us in our faith, devoted to Jesus, the Savior of our souls.

THE POWER OF PENTECOST

What if you had been able to be present at the first Pentecost when the Holy Spirit entered into the world? Luke describes the event in amazing detail. Through his story, we see not only the power of Pentecost, but the power of the Holy Spirit. He just as promised to those first disciples who?

"And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting." ACTS 2:2

The experience of a rushing wind that whirled throughout the great room here has something and exhilarating for the disciples of Jesus gathered in that room. They knew that something beyond themselves was in their midst, something from God. The Spirit continued to visit around us and enter our spirits to love and serve the people around us.

"Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them." ACTS 2:3

Since the time of Moses, fire indicated the presence of God. So these tongues of fire that appeared on Pentecost sent the clear message that the Spirit of God was breathing on the hearts and minds of the followers of Christ. The Spirit seeks upon each of us in every situation we see in as an energetic force that helps us to name and act in the way God wants us to in the "new" side.

Footsteps to the Cross

My Lenten Journey With Jesus

by David Mead

Each day of Lent is something like a step along a path, a path that leads to Easter. This small book will help children get to know Jesus a little better as they make their way to understand his suffering on Good Friday and celebrate his rising on Easter Sunday. Each day, a special passage from Scripture tells about an event in Jesus' life or a key Lenten theme. A footprint sticker marks the path to the cross each day and brings readers a step closer to our Savior.

Code SJ6

Posters, included in each set, punch or cut out and fold to make a cardboard Lenten centerpiece to place stickers on every day!

Let God's People Go!

Through God's chosen helper Moses, God saved the Israelites from slavery in Egypt and led them to freedom. On this Lenten sticker booklet journey, children discover that through the saving grace of God's Son, Jesus, we are led from slavery in sin and death into freedom and life everlasting. The colorful cut-out centerpiece is used as a "map" that is marked along the way with the stickers in this Lenten "guidebook."

Code SVJ

For children ages 5-12 and their families.
Includes an 11" x 17" centerpiece and stickers.
16 pages • 5 $\frac{3}{8}$ " x 8 $\frac{3}{8}$ "

Gather 'Round the Cross

This Lent, children and families will gather around the cross, but they will not be alone. The daily devotions in this sticker booklet will introduce them to the characters who gathered with Jesus as he journeyed through Jerusalem toward Calvary. Throughout Lent, children will read verses from Matthew's Gospel and place a sticker on the easy-to-assemble cross centerpiece. Each day they will gather in Jesus' name to learn about his act of saving love.

For God So Loved the World
Devotions drawn from John 3:16

The few words of John 3:16 are sometimes called "the Gospel in a nutshell." These devotions explore the verse that so well sums up the unexpected, self-sacrificing love of God for the world he created. The sign of the cross, an instrument of violence and death, has become for us a sign of forgiveness and life. God sent his Son as the Savior of the world so that all who believe in him will have eternal life. That is how God so loved the world.

Father, Master, Bridegroom, King

A 6-Session Bible Study on the Kingdom Parables
by Carol Geisler

This Bible study for summer, or any time of the year, looks at parables about the Kingdom of God and the different roles of God and God's people presented in each one Jesus told. In the process, students learn lessons about the role of God in their lives today and the roles they have been given to carry out. Each session includes study questions, prayers and reflections. The leader's guide, included as part of the digital download, has all the answers, helpful study notes and session directions.

To Love As Jesus Loves

Love Lessons for Christian Women from Women of the Bible

In these sessions you will see how God used six New Testament women—Mary of Bethany, the Samaritan woman, Mary Magdalene, Dorcas, Priscilla and Eunice—to share his love. You will also learn about six other fascinating but not well-known women who shared God's love in similar ways. Let their stories encourage you as you learn how God wants you to shine with Jesus' love.

Weekly Object Lessons for Schools
by Mark Zimmermann

In these 47 object lessons for chapel services by Mark Zimmermann, based on the appointed Gospel readings for the Sundays of the 2024–2025 school year, students learn from God’s Word as they prepare to hear the Good News proclaimed on the coming Sunday. Each lesson includes suggested Bible readings, hymns, a children’s message and a brief prayer. These object lessons may be used for school chapels, for homeroom devotions or for Sunday children’s sermons. Ages 6-12.

Backpack Blessing Event Kit

Here is a Blessing of the Backpacks event you can do in church at the start of the school year to remind students that God blesses them each day of their lives as they reach out in faith as a blessing to others. This kit includes instructions for coordinating and presenting a 10-minute event, a script to bless the backpacks, a children’s sermon, tear-off notes for parents to put in their children’s backpacks and 10 luggage tags for the children to attach to their backpacks to share the great hope-filled message shared in 1 Corinthians 13:13, “These things remain: Faith, Hope, LOVE!”
