MERCY PASSION AND JOY

Beloved Christian author C. S. Lewis has written extensively on the role of Christ in our lives and the powerful impact of his death and resurrection for our salvation. Let the insights of Lewis lead you through Lent.

◀ Daily Lent Devotions By Joel Heck

INSPIRATION FROM C. S. LEWIS

This daily devotion booklet for Lent is centered on Scripture and the wisdom of C. S. Lewis, followed by reflections from author Joel Heck. Readers will be led from contemplations on the mercy of Christ to the Passion he suffered on our behalf to the astounding joy that is ours because of his great sacrifice for us.

Lift Up Your Hearts

Lent is a time to lift up your hearts to the Lord. What does that mean? It means showing honor, respect and love to our Savior in word and deed this season as we offer up ourselves to him.

Lent Devotions for Families ►

By Kate Wicker

Author and speaker Kate Wicker brings families an approachable and inspirational booklet to keep at the family table throughout Lent. Gather each day to consider Scripture, a reflection and relevant conversations and activities to guide hearts both young and old toward the glory of Easter Sunday. (And even if it's every other day, you'll be blessed as your family gathers around the Word and a timely message for the season.)

Lord, I'm Listening

Lent is a time to listen closely with the children in your parish to the sounds we hear in the story of salvation. The Good News is that God has heard our prayers for help and has sent his Son to save us.

◀ Lent Daily Devotions for Kids

"Is that a snake I hear up in that tree? Oh, don't listen to that!" So begins this sound-filled Lenten journey. In these Lent daily devotions for kids, readers are invited to open their ears and listen to Jesus' saving words and the many Biblical sounds that accompanied Jesus' journey to the cross and beyond to the opening of his tomb! Ages 6-12.

DYING HIS DEATH LIVING HIS LIFE

In this series of special worship services for Lent, we are reminded that we are buried with Christ in his death so that we might live with him in his resurrection. The old is gone. The new has come. Each day affords us a chance to die to self and live for him. In word and song, we contemplate those things that were put to death on the cross so that we might receive the blessings of new life in Christ.

Ash Wednesday – Dying to Sin, Living in Forgiveness

We lay our sins on Jesus and receive his forgiveness in return.

Week 1 – Dying to Pride, Living for Others

We turn away from self to turn to others in love.

Week 2 – Dying to Greed, Living for the Treasures of Heaven

We release our grip on earthly things so that we might grasp those heavenly things above.

Week 3 – Dying to Doubt, Living by Faith

We rid ourselves of uncertainty in exchange for total trust in Christ.

Week 4 – Dying to Turmoil, Living in Peace

We trade our troubles for the comfort of Christ.

Week 5 – Dying to Judgment, Living in Grace

We are released from punishment to dwell in Christ's mercy.

◀ Lighten Up for Lent

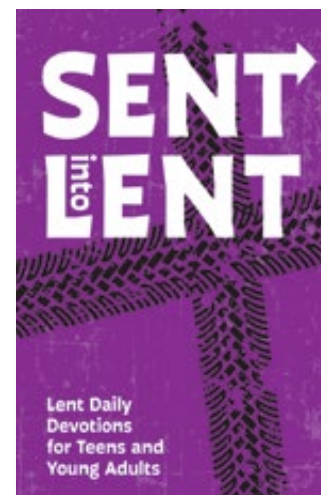

Lent Daily Devotions for Teens

There is light to be found in Lent! It is a season about sorrow and passion—there's no denying that—but Lent is also a season about salvation and the God who sent his Son to enliven and enlighten us. These Lent daily devotions for teens offer light-themed (and often light-hearted) reflections which reflect on the light of Christ that shines, especially in this dark season. Teens and young adults will fix their eyes past the cross to the open tomb of Easter and the bright light that shines for all of us there.

SAVIOR · SERVANT FRIEND

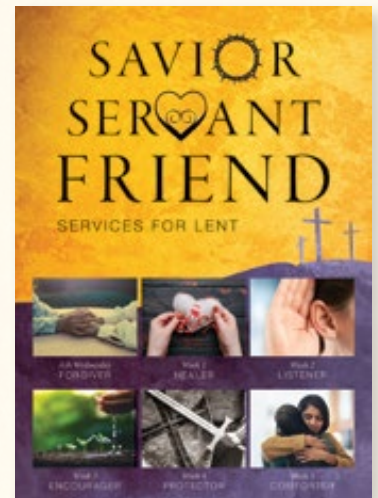

Lent provides us with a perfect chance to explore the extraordinary attributes of our Savior, Servant and Friend, Jesus. It is a time to marvel at the many blessings we received when he laid down his life for us on the cross and then rose victorious from the grave. Each service in this series by Trevor Sutton dwells upon a different aspect of our greatest Friend and what each characteristic means to us as his followers and friends.

All Around Jerusalem

A Sticker Activity for Lent

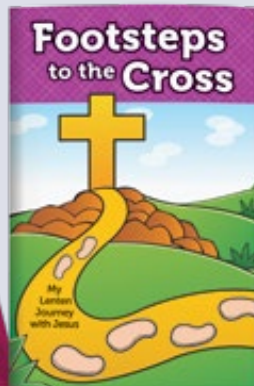

There is much to see in the city of Jerusalem this season. Our Savior, Jesus, has arrived in town with good things to show us and loving things to offer us. Keep your eyes on Jesus these weeks as he looks to the cross, to the tomb and beyond. As you use this sticker activity for Lent, read a devotion and Bible verse each day. Place a sticker on your Jerusalem display, and follow Jesus on his journey through the city on his way to the cross. On Easter Sunday, look to see our risen Savior!

For children ages 5-12 and their families.

Sticker book activity • 16 pages • 5½" x 8¾" • Includes an 11" x 17" activity sheet and stickers • Code LM1 • $1.99 ea

Posters, included in each set, punch or cut out and fold to make a sturdy Jerusalem display to place stickers on every day!

Footsteps to the Cross ▲

Each day of Lent is something like a step along a path, a path that leads to Easter. This small book will help children get to know Jesus a little better as they make their way to understand his suffering on Good Friday and celebrate his rising on Easter Sunday. Each day, a special passage from Scripture tells about an event in Jesus' life or a key Lenten theme. A footprint sticker marks the path to the cross each day and brings readers a step closer to our Savior.

Crown Him With Many Crowns ▲

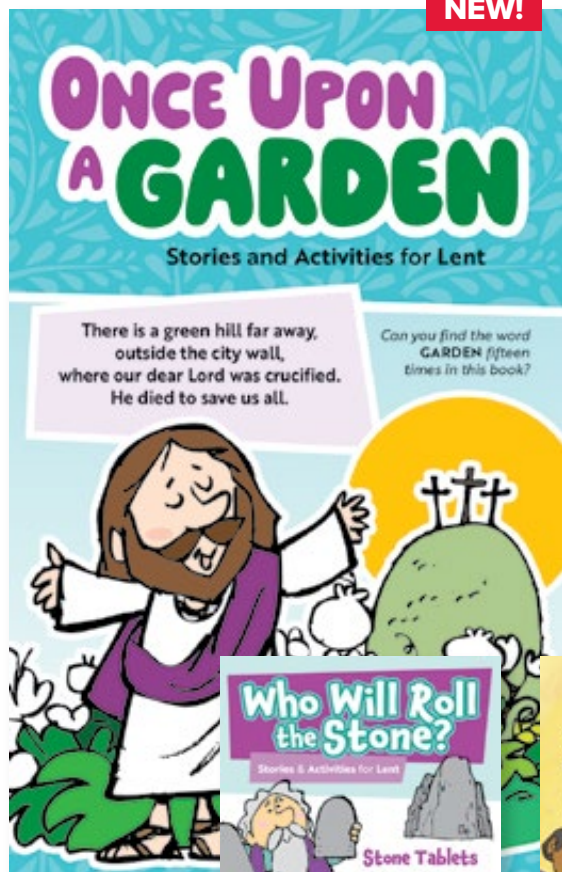

Our King is coming! He comes to save his people. He comes to forgive, and he comes to free. As they welcome King Jesus this Lent, children will learn how our King came to share the gifts of God's kingdom with us. On Ash Wednesday, assemble the crown from the accompanying punch-out sheet. Every weekday in Lent, read a devotion and Bible verse, place a jewel sticker on the crown and learn the lessons our King teaches us. On Easter Sunday, wear the crown to church, and worship our risen King!

Good Shepherd Sunday - April 26

◀ The Lord Is My Shepherd Reflections on Psalm 23

The 23rd Psalm is one of the most widely known passages of Scripture. For use at times of celebration or as comfort during times of grief, these devotions reflecting on the words of the psalm assure us of our Lord's constant guiding presence, care and protection, even in the face of life's most challenging experiences.
